"office bearer" includes the leader, secretary and treasurer of a political party;

2/26/2014

"political party" means a combination of persons who have constituted themselves for a political purpose;

"registered" means registered under this Act;

“registered member” or “member” means a member of a political party whose name, address and national identity number are entered in a register of members kept and maintained by that political party;

3. (1) The Electoral Commission may register a political party, the symbol, logo and the acronym of the party.

2/25/2020

(2) The Electoral Commission may appoint on such terms and conditions as the Electoral Commission determines such officers as may appear to the Electoral Commission to be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

4. (1) The Commission shall keep a register in which shall be recorded such particulars relating to a registered political party as may be prescribed.

(2) A copy of an entry in the register certified by the Commission shall, for the purposes of any written law, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.

5. (1) A political party consisting of not less than 100 registered members who are registered voters and are 18 years of age or above may apply in the prescribed form to the Electoral Commission for registration under this Act.

2/26/2014

(2) An application for registration shall be signed by the office bearers of the political party and shall be accompanied by -

- (a) two copies of the constitution, rules and political programme or manifesto of the party duly certified by the leader of the party,
- (b) the particular of the registered office of the party;
- (c) a list giving the name, address and national identity number of not less than 100 registered members of the party;
- (d) a list giving the name, address and national identity number of the leader, secretary and treasurer and other office bearers of the party;
- (e) such further information or document as the Commission may require for the purpose of satisfying itself that the application complies with this Act or that the party is entitled to be registered under this Act.

(3) A list referred to in paragraph (c) and paragraph (d) shall be signed by each of the persons named therein.

(4) A person shall not be considered to be a member of a political party for the purposes of this Act unless -

- (a) he has attained the age 18 years;
- (b) he is a Seychellois; and
- (c) he is resident in Seychelles.

(5) The Electoral Commission shall acknowledge receipt of the application for registration accompanied with the documents required under subsection (2), within 7 days of such receipt.

3/25/2020

(6) The Electoral Commission shall assess the application and the accompanying documents and verify the details of registered members of the party.

(7) The Electoral Commission shall, within a period of 30 days from the receipt of the application for registration, inform the political party in writing if any further information is required.

(8) The Electoral Commission shall, if satisfied that the application and the accompanying documents meets the requirements of this section, publish for a period of 30 days, the application for registration of the political party on its website and at all registration centres for the public to make comments or objections.

(9) Any objections may be made in writing not later than 7 days after the expiry of the period of 30 days referred to in subsection (8).

(10) If any objection is received under subsection (9), the Electoral Commission shall notify the objection to the political party and invite it to respond.

(11) If no response is received from the political party, within a period of 15 days of the notice under subsection (10), the Electoral Commission shall reject the application for registration.

(12) If a response to the objection is received, within a period of 15 days of the notice under subsection (10), and the Electoral Commission is satisfied with the response, the Electoral Commission shall within a period of 15 days from the date of the response make a decision on the application under this Act.

6. (1) Where the Commission registers a political party, the Commission shall issue the party with a certificate of registration and shall register and stamp the copies of the constitution and rules of the party submitted with the application and return a copy thereof to the party.

(2) A registered political party shall display its certificate of registration at its registered office.

(3) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable, on the registration of a political party, -

- (a) give notice of the registration of a political party; and
- (b) publish the constitution and the details of the leader, secretary, and treasurer and other office bearers of the party, in the Gazette and on the website of the Commission.

7. (1) The Commission may refuse to register a political party if he is satisfied that -

4/25/2020

- (a) the application is not in conformity with this Act;
- (b) the name, logo or acronym of the party -
 - (i) is identical to the name, logo, or acronym of a registered political party or a political party which has been cancelled under this Act or a political party whose application precedes the present application;
 - (ii) so nearly resembles the name, logo, or acronym of a registered political party or a political party which has been cancelled under this Act or a political party whose application precedes the present application as to be likely to deceive the members of the party or the public; or

- (iii) is provocative or offends against public decency or contrary to any other written law as to be undesirable;
 - (c) any purpose or object of the party is unlawful;
 - (d) the name of a person has been endorsed as a member in the application for registration of the party without the consent or knowledge of the person.
- (2) A political party shall be deemed to have a purpose or object which is unlawful for the purposes of this Act if-
- (a) it seeks, directly or indirectly, to further ethnical, racial or religious discrimination or discrimination on the ground of colour;
 - (b) it advocates or seeks to effect political changes in the Republic through violence or unlawful means;
 - (c) it seeks to secede any part of the Republic from the Republic.
- (3) For the purposes of determining whether a political party has an unlawful purpose or object the Commission may consider any document, statement or matter made by or on behalf of the political party or by an office bearer of the party.
- (4) Where the Commission refuses to register a political party, the Commission shall forthwith serve upon the party a notice in writing to this effect and shall specify the ground for its refusal.

8. (1) Where the Commission refuses to register a political party, an office bearer of the party may, within 21 days after receiving the notice of refusal, appeal to the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks fit.

2/26/2014

- (1A) An appeal against the decision of the Supreme Court shall lie to the Court of Appeal.
- (2) The Commission shall be entitled to be heard on an appeal.

- 9. (1) The Commission may cancel the registration of a political party -
- (a) at the request of the party made and signed by the office bearers of the party;
 - (b) on proof to the satisfaction of the Commission that the registration of the party has been obtained by fraud or mistake;
 - (c) on proof to the satisfaction of the Commission that the party has a purpose or object which is unlawful;
 - (d) on proof to the satisfaction of the Commission that the number of registered members of the party has fallen below 100;
 - (e) if the party, after notice of the Commission, fails to comply with this Act;

(f) the Commission is satisfied that the party has ceased to exist.

(2) The Commission shall, 21 days before proposing to cancel the registration of a political party, give notice in writing to the party of its intention to cancel its registration and of the ground on which it intends to do so but no notice shall be required where subsection 1(a) or (e) applies.

(3) The Registrar shall, as soon as practicable after cancelling a political party, give notice of the cancellation of the political party in the Gazette.

10. (1) An office bearer of a political party in respect of Supreme Court which the Commission has issued a notice under section 9(2) may, upon receipt of the notice and before the 21 days referred to in section 9(2) has elapsed, appeal to the Supreme Court against the finding of the Commission contained in the notice of intended cancellation and the Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks fit.

(2) Where the registration of a political party has been cancelled as a result of a request of the party or because the party has ceased to exist, a person who was a member of the party at the time of its cancellation may, within 14 days after the publication of the notice of cancellation in the Gazette, appeal to the Supreme Court against the cancellation and the Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks fit.

(2A) An appeal against the decision of the Supreme Court shall lie to the Court of Appeal.

2/26/2014

(3) The Commission shall be entitled to be heard on an appeal.

11. A registered political party shall, within 7 days of any change -

(a) occurring in the address of its registered office;

(b) among its office bearers or in the particulars of its office bearers, notify the Commission of such change.

12. (1) A registered political party shall, within 7 days of making an amendment to its constitution or rules, submit two copies of the amendment to the Commission and the amendment shall not have effect until it has been registered by the Commission.

2/26/2014

(2) Where the Commission registers an amendment it shall stamp the two copies of the amendment and return a copy to the political party.

(3) The Commission may refuse to register an amendment if it appears to the Commission that by reason of the amendment the purpose or one of the objects of the party would be unlawful or the amendment contravenes this Act and the Commission shall give notice in writing of the refusal to the party and shall specify the ground for the refusal.

(4) Where the Commission refuses to register an amendment an office bearer of the political party may, within 14 days of the date of the notice of refusal, appeal to the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks fit.

(4A) An appeal against the decision of the Supreme Court shall lie to the Court of Appeal.

(2) The Fund shall be administered by the Commission.

28. (1) The moneys of the Fund shall consist of monies appropriated by an Appropriation Act and paid into the Fund.

(2) The moneys of the Fund shall be applied by the Commission for the payment of financial assistance to registered political parties.

(3) The moneys out of the Fund referred to in subsection (1) shall be disbursed to the registered political parties on a quarterly basis.

2/26/2014

29. (1) The Commission shall on or before 30th January each year determine the total amount of financial assistance to be paid out of the Fund to the registered political parties which on the 1st day of January of that year are registered in the register kept under section 4 and are eligible for payment of financial assistance under subsection (2).

(2) Each registered political party referred to in subsection (1) which had nominated candidates for the immediately preceding general election of the National Assembly shall be entitled to receive out of the amount determined under that subsection such sum as is equal to the proportion which the total number of valid votes cast or deemed to be cast in favour of the candidates nominated by that party for that election bears to the total number of valid votes cast at that election.

(3) Where a registered political party referred to in subsection (1) has not nominated any candidates for the immediately preceding general election of the National Assembly or a political party is registered after the date of that election, such party, if it nominates any candidates for a general election of the National Assembly shall be entitled to receive, such amount to be calculated prorata on the lowest sum payable to a political party under subsection (2), from the date of nomination of its candidates to the end of the quarter in which the general election is to be held.

(4) The sum each political party is entitled to receive under subsection (2) or subsection (3) may be paid quarterly in advance on or before 30th January, 30th April, 31st July, and 31st October or in such manner and at such times as the Commission may, in consultation with political parties, determine.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), in an election year, the amount to be paid to political parties under subsection (2) shall be paid in advance for the quarter in which the general election is to be held.

(6) Following the results of the general election of the National Assembly, the amount to be paid to political parties shall be re-calculated proportionally according to the total number of valid votes cast in favour of the candidates nominated by that party for the immediately preceding general election of the National Assembly.

(7) The amount payable shall be proportional to the number of votes cast in favour of those candidates against the total number of valid votes cast at the last general election of the National Assembly.

(8) The amount payable shall be calculated prorata from the first day of the quarter after which the general election was held to 31st December of that year and any payment may be made quarterly in accordance with subsection (2).

29A. (1) A registered political party shall not accept, directly or indirectly, any contribution or donation from –

2/26/2014

1. These Rules may be cited as the Political Parties (Registration and Regulation) (Appeal) Rules.

2. In these Rules-

“advocate” means a barrister or attorney;

“appellant” includes a party intending to appeal;

“court” means the Supreme Court;

“Registry” means the Registry of the Supreme Court;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Supreme Court and includes an Assistant Registrar.

3. Service and proof of service of process in an appeal shall be in accordance with the Seychelles Code of Civil Procedure for service of summons.

4. A party desiring an extension of the time prescribed for taking any step in an appeal may apply to the court by motion and the court may grant such extension as it thinks reasonable in the circumstances.

5. (1) An appeal shall be commenced by a notice of appeal.

(2) The notice of appeal shall be filled in the Registry within the period expressly provided by sections 8(1), 10 and 12(4) of the Act, as the case may be.

(3) The notice of appeal shall be accompanied by as many copies of the notice as there are respondents.

(4) The Registrar of Political Parties shall be made a respondent to a notice of appeal.

(5) On filing a notice of appeal the appellant shall pay a sum of R.500 as fees of court and a sum of R15 for service of notice of appeal on each respondent.

(6) The Registrar shall cause the notice of appeal to be served on each respondent as soon as is practicable.

(7) If there are two or more appellants they may sign a joint notice of appeal with one address for service or each may sign a separate notice of appeal.

6. If the appellant wishes to proceed with the appeal he shall, within fourteen days from the date of the filing of the notice of appeal, deliver to the Registrar a memorandum of appeal.

7. The memorandum of appeal shall contain a concise statement in numbered paragraphs of the point or points on which the decision is alleged to be erroneous, without any argument or narrative and a concise prayer of the relief claimed and a list of exhibits sought to be adduced at the hearing of the appeal.

8. (1) The appellant shall deliver with the memorandum of appeal as many copies of the memorandum as there are respondents and shall at the same time give security, in such sum as may be determined by the Registrar, for the costs of the appeal by bond with one surety to the satisfaction of the Registrar.

(2) The appellant shall pay a fee of R15 for service of the memorandum of appeal on each respondent.

9. If the appellant has not complied with rules 6, 7 or 8 within the time prescribed, the appeal shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

10. The Registrar shall forthwith cause the memorandum to be served on each of the respondents.

11. The Registrar shall prepare the record of appeal as soon as is practicable after the delivery of the memorandum of appeal.

12. The record shall contain a list of exhibits.

13. (1) The appellant shall deliver to the court the exhibits in his possession and the Registrar or Political Parties shall, subject to sub rule (2), deliver to court the exhibits in his possession.

(2) Where documentary exhibits are lengthy the Registrar of Political Parties may deliver such portions only of the exhibits as are necessary for the hearing of the appeal.

(3) The exhibits when delivered to the Registrar shall form a part of the record.

14. (1) The Registrar shall cause to be served on the appellant or his advocate a copy of the record other than the exhibits.

(2) Each respondent may, on application to the Registrar, receive a copy of the record other than the exhibits, on the payment of such fees as may be determined by the Registrar.

(3) Any party to the appeal may, on application to the Registrar, inspect the exhibits delivered to court and take copies of extracts therefrom on payment of such fee as the Registrar may determine.

15. As soon as the memorandum has been served, the Registrar shall add it to the record.

16. The Registrar shall after the preparation of the record set the appeal down for hearing and notify the parties or their advocates of the date fixed.

17. (1) When the appeal is called for hearing the appellant or his advocate, if present, shall be heard in support of the appeal.

(2) Where the court feels after hearing the appellant that it is necessary to hear the respondent, the court shall hear the respondent or his advocate, if present, and in that event the appellant or his advocate may reply.

(3) If the appellant does not appear but the respondent appears, the court shall consider the record and if necessary hear the respondent and may allow the appeal, in whole or in part, or vary the decision and may make any order as to the merits or as to costs which the justice of the case requires.

(4) If neither party appears the appeal shall be dismissed unless for special reasons the court orders an adjournment.

18. The judgment, decision or order of the court shall be transmitted by the Registrar to the Registrar of Political Parties by serving on the latter a certified copy of the said judgment, decision or order and the judgment, decision or order shall be enforced in the same manner as if it were a decision of the Registrar of Political Parties.

19. The costs awarded by the court shall be paid through the Registry which shall have power to enforce payment of such costs and the Registrar shall be the Taxing master and shall exercise such powers in respect of costs and execution as he normally exercises in civil matters.
